What are the risks and what could I get in return?

Risk indicator	Description of the risk-reward profile  1 2 3 4 5 6 7   ← → Lower risk Higher risk    This risk indicator assumes you keep the product for 5 years which is the recommended holding period. You may not be able to sell your product easily or you may have to sell at a price that significantly impacts on how much you get back. The summary risk indicator is a guide to the level of risk of this product compared to other products. It shows how likely it is that the product will lose money because of movements in the markets or because we are not able to pay you. We have classified this product as 4 out of 7, which is a medium risk class. This rates the potential losses from future performance at a medium level, and poor market conditions could impact our capacity to pay you. This product does not include any protection from future market performance so you could lose some or all of your investment. If there is increased competition for investment properties this may affect our ability to secure suitable investments which may have an adverse effect on the Company's performance.

This table shows the money you could get back over the next 5 years, under different scenarios, assuming you invest £10,000.

The scenarios shown illustrate how your investment could perform. You can compare them with the scenarios of other products.

The scenarios presented are an estimate of future performance based on evidence from the past of how the value of this investment varies, and are not an exact indicator. What you get will vary depending on how the market performs and how long you keep the investment.

The stress scenario shows what you might get back in extreme market circumstances, and it does not take into account the situation where we are not able to pay you.

The figures shown include all the costs of the product itself but may not include all the costs that you pay to your advisor or distributor. The figures do not take into account your personal tax situation, which may also affect how much you get back.

What happens if Pacific Capital Partners Limited is unable to pay out?

As a Shareholder of the Company, you would not be able to make a claim to the Financial Services Compensation Scheme about the Company in the event the Company is unable to pay out.

What are the costs?

The Reduction in Yield (RIY) shows what impact the total costs you pay will have on the investment return you might get. The total costs take into account one-off, ongoing and incidental costs. The amounts shown here are the cumulative costs of the product itself, for three different holding periods. They include potential early exit penalties. The figures assume you invest £10,000. The figures are estimates and may change in the future.
